Wednesday, October 20. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 20.

Rome, Sept. 22.

THE Pope has declar'd his Resolution to hearken to no Propositions of Accommodation which the Marquis de Prié may be commision'd to offer to him, unless previously the Imperialists evacuate the Places of which they have taken Possession in the Ferrareze; and unless the Emperour's Declarations against the Temporal Rights of the Holy See, as also the Edicts in the Name of the Archduke publish'd at Naples and Milan for putting under Sequestration the Revenues of the absent Clergy, be revok'd. A Courier from Cardinal Casoli Legate of Ferrara, has brought the Pope an Account, that his Forces or Subjects have begun to treat the Germans hostilely.

Venice, Sept. 29. Letters from Ferrara advise, that General Marfigli was arriv'd at Bologna, and had given necessary Orders for the Defence of that City and the adjacent Posts: That he had given Direction for building a Fort on the Hill of the Capuchins, which commands that City: And also for cleansing the Ditches, and making new Fortifications where the Place is weakest. The Pope's Troops and the Peasants have beaten the Imperialists out of all the Posts of which they were possess'd in the Ferrareze, except Comacchio and the Tower of Magnavacca, whither those who could escape them retir'd, and where they are in want of many things, especially of Flesh. The Count de Bonneval who commands them, has order'd the Peasants of the Neighbouring Country to lay down their Arms, on pain of being treated with all the Rigour of Fire and Sword: But instead of obeying him, they have block'd up Comacchio on all Sides, and have possess'd themselves of a Post call'd Fontene, within a League of Magnavacca, and by that Means hinder the Imperialists from supplying themselves with fresh Water. The Advices from Leghorn import, that a Bark which was come in 9 Days from Trapano, had brought an Account that Prince Pio General of Arms in Sicily for the King of Spain was arriv'd at Palermo, and was receiv'd with great Joy by all the Inhabitants: That the Marquis de los Balbases the Viceroy, appear'd daily on Horseback in the Streets of that City, to see good Order kept; to the great satisfaction of the People: And that the Place of Arms for the Troops of that Island, is appointed at Taormina between Messina and Catania.

Vienna, Octob. 10. Some Days ago died here Count Oettingen President of the Aulick Council, who is very much lamented. He was employ'd by his Imperial Majesty at the Treaty of Carowitz, as his first Plenipotentiary, and afterwards sent to the Porte with the Character of Ambassador. We have but very uncertain News of the progress of the Siege of Neuhausen. The Garrison made a Sally some Days ago, in which both the Besiegers and Besieged suffer'd considerable loss, some Hundreds having been kill'd on each side. 'Tis rumour'd that General Heister has rais'd the Siege, the certainty of which we shall know in a few Days. Some of our Clergy would dissuade the Emperour from ordering all his Troops to march to the Ferrareze from Piemon, alledging that the Pope does not intend to make War, but only to obtain such an Accommodation as may not be dishonourable to him: But on the other Hand our Ministers represent, that this Counsel of the Clergy tends only to give the Pope Time and Means, not only to oppose the Emperour, but to do great mischief to his Imperial Majesty and his Allies; and that 'tis obviously the Emperour's Interest to make a speedy and vigorous Push in the Ferrareze, before the Pope's Forces are in a better Condition to withstand him.

From the Paris Letter, dated Oct. 19.

Paris, Oct. 19. We have receiv'd Advice by the Way of Basil in Switzerland, that the Marshal de Thille arriv'd at Genoa the 28th of last Month; that he deliver'd to the Doge a Letter from the King; that he had afterwards several Conferences with the Senators who were deputed to receive his Propositions; and that 'twas not doubted his Endeavours to negotiate a new Alliance with that Republick, for the Liberty of Italy, would have speedy Success. Letters from Basil inform us, that the Roman Catholick Cantons assembled at Lucerne had written a Letter to the Cantons of Berne and Zurich, in very moderate and peaceful Terms; complaining, that the said two Cantons act arbitrarily in the general Affairs of the Helvetick Body; that their Proceedings were despotick in the Affair of Neuchatel; and now lately in that of the Differences in the Territory of Tockenbourg. They remonstrate to them very mildly, that such proceedings are contrary to Custom, and to the federal Alliances between the Roman Catholick and Protestant Cantons. At the same time they desire them to conform to the laudable and antient Usages of their Ancestors, and thereby avoid the Inconveniences that may arise, if their new Methods of Proceeding should oblige the other Cantons to take proper Measures against them. The said Roman Catholick Cantons have sent to those of Baden and Schaffhausen Copies of this Letter, and desired them to concur with them in their equitable and peaceable Resolutions. The Elector Palatine, to commemorate his Acquisition of the Upper Palatinat, has reviv'd the Order of Knighthood of St. Hubert: The Knights of which Order wear a Cross with the Image of that Saint, to which his Electoral Highness has made an Addition denoting his Office of Archidapifer of the Empire, with these Words Palatinatus superior recuperatus. The Knights he has made, are the Landgrave of Darmstadt, the Count Palatine de Sulzbach, and several other Princes, Counts, and Barons of the Empire, to whom his Electoral Highness has assign'd Commanderies in the Baillages of the Upper Palatinat.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 23.
Zurich, Oct. 13. The Cantons of Zurich and Berne have returned Answer to the Letter written to them by the Roman Catholic Cantons; plainly intimating that they will not recede from what they have done in the Affair of Tockenbuck, and that they are not to be frightened by Threats.
